From the Word Wenches blog: The Voynich Manuscript

Any codebreakers among us? Is anyone able to decipher the most mysterious book in the world? Has anyone ever heard of the Voynich Manuscript, a 15th century codex? The first URL below is from a blog produced by Word Wenches, a group of romance writers. (Yes, romance writers research what they write about.) Evidently, the Codex has tantalized scholars for centuries. After reading the blog, I looked up said manuscript in Wikipedia. See the second URL below for more information. BTW - supposedly, the Codex has been deciphered. Supposedly...

A fifth book I'd recommend for armchair touring of France is Mary Stewart's classic gothic, Madam, Will You Talk? After reading this book, you will feel you've been to Provence, Avignon, Nimes, and even Chateau d'If.
