New and Noteworthy from here and there...

Kelmscott Bookshop July Newsletter. Kelmscott Bookshop has moved! They are now located in Historic Savage Mill. As of this writing, they are still unpacking and organizing; but think they will be ready to start accepting appointments starting in late July / early August. All of the books are unpacked at this point, so orders are welcome. This newsletter features several new arrivals, including first editions of the Island of Doctor Moreau and The Faerie Queene, a history of the American flag (only $25), an artists' book on memory loss, and more. Also included is information about the location of the shop within Savage Mill, as well as address information.
