

The Baltimore Bibliophiles

A Literary Miscellany - October 16, 2020

Binnie Syril Braunstein, Editor

Kelmscott Bookshop Newsletter: Mid-Month Edition!

Books and/or prints to help you settle in for the winter months. Don't forget to place your orders before the October sale ends on the 31st. Featuring sale items in the following categories:

- Occult, Mythology and Magic
- Natural History Books and Prints
- Philosophy Books

http://bit.ly/October_Sale_2020

Articles from Literary Hub:

(via The History of Literature podcast): On the Haunting Remorse of Edgar Allen Poe's "Black Cat."

<https://lithub.com/on-the-haunting-remorse-of-edgar-allen-poes-the-black-cat/>

"Eight Dazzling Historical Thrillers Featuring Real Life Jewels and Paintings"

<https://crimereads.com/eight-dazzling-historical-thrillers-featuring-real-life-jewels-and-paintings/>

The Biblio File (podcast) presents Andy Hunter On Bookshop.org and how to stick it to Amazon.

<https://thebibliofile.ca/andy-hunter-on-bookshoporg-and-how-to-stick-it-to-amazon>

From TIME (via Literary Hub): "The 100 Best Fantasy Books of All Time"

This is not just a list; it's a lengthy article. Recommended.

<https://time.com/collection/100-best-fantasy-books/>

Contributions to Literary Miscellany are always welcome. Please contact Binnie Syril Braunstein. BSBGC@aol.com